

2017-18 ADULT EDUCATION PMF TASK FORCE MEETING

ADDENDUM

DC
PUBLIC
CHARTER
SCHOOL BOARD

March 2017

OVERVIEW

In Response to Task Force Input

Regarding Earned
Secondary Credential and GED Subject Test
measures

- Eliminating Proposals A and B
- Committing to using national data from GED Testing Service to set floors

Proposal A and B Summary

- Proposal A
  - Tier 3 Cutoff = 10th percentile of school performance
- Proposal B
  - Tier 1 Cutoff = charter sector average

DC PCSB Committed to Increasing Floors

- National pass rates demonstrate need to increase floors for Secondary Credential and GED Subject Test measures (see Slide 5)
- Ultimate goal is to fully honor meaning of tiers
  - Tier 1: exceeding expectations
  - Tier 2: meeting expectations
  - Tier 3: not meeting expectations

National GED Pass Rates

Table reports GED Pass rate among testers identified as “Likely to Pass” on GED Ready

Subject Test	Pass Rate
Language Arts	97%
Math	92%
Science	93%
Social Studies	90%

REVISED PROPOSAL FOR 2017-18 PMF

2017-18 Secondary Credential & GED Subject Test Alignment

Proposal

- Continue using 2016-17 GED Subject Test floor-setting business rule on 2017-18 PMF
- Apply the 2016-17 GED Subject Test floor-setting business rule to the 2017-18 Secondary Credential measure
- On both measures
  - Floor = 40
  - Target = 100

Recall: 2016-17 GED Subject Test Business Rule

The floor is based on setting 70%, the probability of passing the GED given a “likely to pass” score on the GED Ready, at 50% of the range between the floor and target.

PLAN FOR 2018-19 PMF

2018-19 Secondary Credential & GED Subject Test Alignment

Proposal

- Implement new business rule for both measures on the 2018-19 PMF
  - Increase floors from 40
  - Task Force meeting(s) in Summer 2017 to identify business rule
