District of Columbia International School (Middle School)

Note from the School
District of Columbia International School (DCI) is an International Baccalaureate (IB) World School. Our mission is to inspire engaged, knowledgeable, and caring students. We are an "IB for All" school: all our students take IB classes. Students also take Chinese, French, or Spanish Language Arts, in a technology-rich learning environment. Outside the classroom, students participate in a full range of sports and clubs.
