A Note from the School

Shining Stars Montessori Academy PCS works to inspire children to develop inner discipline, self-assurance, and a love of learning. We seek to balance academic and social development to foster responsibility and cooperation within a supportive learning environment. Shining Stars respects each child, encourages individual excellence, and offers choices allowing children the opportunity to shape their own learning style. Shining Stars brings together children and families of diverse ages, religions, cultures, and socioeconomic backgrounds to develop social skills. Shining Stars fosters hands-on experiences; develops language and math skills; and includes Spanish, science, technology, engineering, arts, gardening, culinary arts, and Model Montessori UN for grades 3 and above as part of the day and extended learning programming.
